Give your international staff a head start to life in Greater Copenhagen

Company service package

International House offers a wide range of services to companies looking for international employees. We will sort out all paperwork and help your staff to a good start to life in Denmark.

At International House our mission is to ease the life of international newcomers. Using the motto “Becoming a Copenhagener”, we provide a full-circle solution helping new Copenhageners with everything from paperwork and practicalities to job search and to building a fulfilling leisure life. We also offer a wide range of social and professional events – all in English and, of course, free of charge.

- Thomas Jakobsen, Director, City of Copenhagen

We help small and medium-sized companies with:

- Registration of new international employees, including issuance of social security number, EU registration certificate, health insurance card and choosing a general practitioner.
- Tax card and guidance on the Danish tax system.
- “New in Denmark” events on topics such as banking, NemID, insurance and Danish business culture.
- Information about school and day care.
- Job search for accompanying spouses.
- Introduction to local culture and leisure activities.
- Volunteering opportunities and networking.

Did you know...

... that we constantly strive to expand our services at International House? We are currently looking into how we can help newcomers find accommodation in Greater Copenhagen.
