

INTERNATIONAL CITIZEN DAYS

GOES VIRTUAL

WWW.IHCPH.DK/ICD

14-16 & 19 SEPT 2020

International Citizen Days goes virtual, bringing together public authorities, private organisations and local communities in the entire Greater Copenhagen region in a brand-new format with live-streamed talks, chatrooms and experts. Get ready for three days of endless inspiration on how to settle in in Greater Copenhagen, including finding a home, job, childcare, language classes, establishing a new network and kick-starting your social life.

We offer you the ease and comfort of a one-point digital entry to a world of professional guidance from 14-16 September followed by real-life happenings on 19 September, introducing you to fantastic activities in Greater Copenhagen as the icing on the cake. All free of charge, of course.

You are invited to join, engage and network. The same is your family, neighbour and friend. We look forward to inspiring you!

WELCOME, CULTURE & LEISURE

 WWW.IHCPH.DK/ICD

Would you like to add a little more music, art, sports and fun to either your or your children's daily life? Have you considered volunteering for a good cause while at the same time practising your Danish skills and expanding your social network?

Sports clubs, dance studios, culture houses, museums, libraries, you name it. A broad range of representatives from the Greater Copenhagen culture and leisure scene is ready to help you make the most of your spare time by guiding you and your family to an active life. But first, a warm welcome.

15 SEPTEMBER, 17.00-20.00
HOUSING

 WWW.IHCPH.DK/ICD

Are you trying to figure out where to settle? Are you familiar with the legal issues to consider when renting or buying a home in Denmark? And how do you even get a grasp of the multitude of housing options available out there? A basic need and yet challenging to find for not only internationals but also locals, securing good housing often requires professional guidance. Experienced representatives from the housing market, financial sector and the Danish tax authorities are ready to guide you through the jungle of complex information.

16 SEPTEMBER, 17.00-20.00
JOB & CAREER

 WWW.IHCPH.DK/ICD

Would you like to understand the Danish tax system and traditional model of collective bargaining? How do you improve your chances of finding a good job or pursuing a certain career? And what are the inescapable codes of Danish workplace culture that you cannot miss? Public and private experts, including the Danish tax authorities, employees' associations and trade unions, are ready to provide you with great insights while at the same time helping you and your partner fulfil your professional selves.

19 SEPTEMBER, 17.00-20.00
EXPLORE GREATER COPENHAGEN

 VARIOUS LOCATIONS

The physical part of the event takes place at various locations in Greater Copenhagen, giving you the chance to try your hand at a sports club, dance studio or language school. The culture and leisure scene will be unfolded with guided tours, open houses and social activities. Have fun while meeting fellow internationals on this exciting Saturday.
